

Judges' Rubric

note that the points for this rubric are either 0, 2, or 4*

Project Rubric

	0	2	4
Impact	The impact of the project is not meaningful nor is it executed purposefully.	The impact of the project is meaningful but is not executed to perfection.	The impact of the project is meaningful and is executed to perfection.
User Interface	The user interface is not clean and intuitive.	The user interface is adequately clean and intuitive.	The user interface is exceptionally clean and intuitive.
Code Documentation	The code is not intuitive to understand and severely lacks proper naming conventions, commenting, readability, etc.	The code has documentation, but is not necessarily intuitive or easy to understand.	The code is intuitive to understand with proper naming conventions, commenting, readability, etc.
Relevance to Theme	The project is not related to the theme.	There is an adequate resemblance to the theme in the project.	The project follows the theme exceptionally.
State of Project	Both the frontend and the backend of the project are not completed.	Either the frontend or the backend are not completed.	Both the frontend and the backend are completed.
Age of Code	The code submitted is recycled/not new.	-	The code submitted has been made specifically during the duration of the Hackathon (meaning it is new).

Presentation rubric on the next page

Judges' Rubric cont.

note that the points for this rubric are either 0, 1, or 2*

Presentation Rubric

	0	1	2
Purpose	The purpose of the project is not explained or is explained poorly.	The purpose of the project is explained adequately.	The purpose of the project is well-explained.
Intended Users	The intended users of the project are not mentioned.	The intended users of the project are mentioned.	The intended users of the project are mentioned and the impact on users is explained.
Architecture	The architecture of the project is not explained or is explained poorly.	The architecture of the project is explained adequately.	The architecture of the project is well-explained.
Functionality	The features and functionality of the project are not explained or are explained poorly.	The features and functionality of the project are explained adequately.	The features and functionality of the project are well-explained.
Demo	The project is not demoed or is demoed poorly with little functionality shown.	The project is demoed but all functionality is not shown.	The project is demoed and all functionality is shown.
Time Limit	The project is not presented completely in the time limit.	-	The project is presented completely in the time limit.
Question and Answer Session	The team did not answer any questions or answered them poorly.	The team answered the judge's questions adequately.	The team answered all of the judge's questions very well.